

ROOM & BOARD PROGRAM FOR YOUTH

Do you have a youth studying away at college or a training program that will need a place to come home to during the upcoming summer break? The AIC's Room & Board program may be able to help!

- All referrals come through the AICenter
- A portion of program funds are available to assist youth in achieving stable housing before they return to their school/training
- Program benefits are only available to member eligible for AIC services

Please contact the AIC staff for more information: DHSAIC@phila.gov
